John Colgan & Co., on corner of Tenth and Walnut

I can recommend Mrs. Limebaugh's Compound Sirup of Spikenard and Tar. I have been sick for a long time, have had several doctors, and they failed in my case. I was very nuch swollen and had a severe cough. After using your medicine a while I was cured of my cough and relieved of my swelling. My complexion is good, and now I am doing my own work. My youngest child had a bad cough for a long time, so severa that her breasthone was sprung from severe coughing in the shape of a chicken bone, but she is now well and looks well. She had been treated by the doctors for a long time but they all failed to cure her cough. Now she is well.

I will ever remain your friend,

LOU-SYILLE, August 6, 18*1.

Mrs. L. Limebauch—Madame: I have used your Compound Sirup in my own case of deep seate bronchial hoarseness, with which I have been afflicted for upward of twenty years, and am satisfied, after having taken three bottles, that it is an admirable compound for the relief of laryngeal and bronchial difficulties, for the three bottles I have used have relieved me more than anything I have taken, and I think it will eithe me effectually if I continue to use it. If my opinion as to its superior character can be of any service you are at liberty to use it as you think proper.

Rev. ELIJAH SUTTON. Any persons suffering with any of the diseases mentioned above can be accommodated with board and good attention. I have desirable rooms for families or single gentlemen desiring private boardine.

a College Student, and a Young Married Lady, full of romance and thrilling interest.

Young men who are troubled with weakness, generally caused by a bad habit in youth, the effects of which are dizziness, pains, forgetfulness, sometimes a ringing in the ears, weak eyes, weakness of the back and lower extremities, confusion of ideas, loss of memory, with melancnoly, may be cured by the author's NEW PARIS AND LONDON TREATMENT.

We have for the greater part of the past year, devoted our time in VISITING THE EUROPEAN HOSPITALS, availing ourselves of the knowledge and researches of the most skilled Physicians and Surgeons in Europe and on the Continent—such men as CIVIALE, LENOIRE, RICORD, BRECHETEAU, ACTON, and CURLINGS, of the French and English hospitals. Our tour extended through France. Italy, Germany, Holland, England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales, visiting in our route the principal hospitals in Paris, London, Rome, Venice, Vienna, Dresden, Berlin, &c., &c. We have been amply repaid by the additional knowledge we have acquired in the treatment of various diseases to which we have directed our attention. Those who place themselves under our care will now have the full benefit of the many NEW AND EFFICIENT REMEDIES which we are enabled to introduce into our practice, and the public may rest assured of the same zeal, assidutty, SECRECY, and attention being paid to their cases, which has so successfully distinguished us heretofore as a Physician in our PECULIAR department of professtrictly confidential.

OUR PARIS CORRESPONDENCE. To the Editors of the Louisville Journal: PARIS, Tuesday, Sept. 3, 1861. PARIS, Tuesday, Sept. 3, 1861.

A new brochure on the Italian question has just appeared in Paris under the title of "the Emperor, Rome, and Italy," the substance of which is that the Eternal City is at this moment a second Coblentz, the hot-bed of conspiracies against the Emperor Napoleon and King Victor Emmanuel. The French flag can no longer serve as a safeguard to machinations directed against the imperial dynasty itself; and every means of obtaining satisfaction from the Pontifical Government having failed, the French army will be speedily withdrawn. France will not bearing up the latis, seezing to them, increasing their own facilities by extending the Winchester road to Strasburg, they are wantonly destroying the road bed, bridges, buildings, watering stations, and every other species of property which may at a future time be ne-data to take her place at Rome; the principle of non-intervention will be rigidly muntained, and, before the retirement of the French, the Roman people will be called upon to express their own facilities by extending the Winchester road to Strasburg, they are wantonly destroying the road bed, bridges, buildings, watering stations, and every other species of property which may at a future time be ne-data to take her place at Rome; the principle of non-intervention will be rigidly muntained, and, before the retirement of the French, the Roman people will be called upon to express their own facilities by extending them, increasing th own wishes. Should the vote be favorable to Victor Emmanuel, the imperial army will be relieved by Italian troops, and the King will publish a proclamating guaranteeing the independence of the Church. This brochure has made a considerable sensation, from the fact that it was at first attributed to the pen of M. de la Gueronniere. It is now denied, however, that it was written by that gentleman. It is not possible that a statesman whose language bears a very high official significance could have indulged in a comparison between the positions of Venice and seized.

A new man indicates new measures, and the belief that a change of policy is to be inaugurated is strengthened by the circumstance that the Marquis de Lavalette himself was, at a previous period, Minister to Turkey and was recalled in 1853, shortly before the commencement of the Russian campaign. Lord Palmerston endeavors to revive feelings of international mistrust, to perpetuate old jealousies and hatreds, and to stir up unseasonably a bad y directed patrio ism."

This is undoubtedly stronger language than the occasion deserved. Notwithstanding their proximity to "merry England," and the enlarged opportunities they now enjoy of studying English character and customs, the French do not understand the local triviality of such festivities as the late ceremony of Dover, and that, without intending to wound anybody's susceptibilities, it was necessary for Lord Palmerston to talk a little "bunkum," in order to give the proceedings spice. Politically, I do not think Lord Palmerston is liked anywhere except in England; but Americans, at least, have the manliness to admire his talents, his courage, and his sterling devotion to what he believes to be his country's welfare.

Lord Palmerston endeavors to revive feelings of international disascentred actively upon the duties of his appointment.

CAPITOL HOTEL, ROOM No 40, FRANKFORT, Sept. 21, 1851.

The resolutions of Mr. Jacob, referred some days nce to the Committee on Federal Relations, were reported back and adopted by the usual majority. A bill to suspend the sessions of the Circuit Courts in certain counties, caused an animated debate, some contending that it would op perate as a relief measure and others arguing that all the courts should be suspended or none, and that this system of partial legislation was derimental to the interests of the people and subversive of the proper administration of justice. A notion to recommend the bill to the Committee on Circuit Courts was adopted, 49 to 15. A bill mending the law with respect to billiard tables changing the license to $50 for the first table to any one saloon and $25 for all others was refused a second reading. This is most unfortunate legislation, for the present high license prevents tables from being set up and thus the revenues are injured. The city of Louisville ha been deprived of a handsome income from this cause. Mr. Houston reported a bill making it a misdemeaner to sell liquor to a soldier or volunteer in uniform under a penalty of $10 fine and 20 days imprisoment. Mr. Heady moved to amend unless the soldier has the written permission of his commanding officer. The bill and amendment were referred to the Committee on Military Affairs. Mr. Burnam moved to take up the Senate resolution fixing Monday the 30th inst., as the day of adjournment, the Legislature to meet again on the first Monday in December. The House refused to take it up-yeas 41, nays 35.

It required two-thirds. Senators M. T. Marshall and Worthington were appointed on the joint committee to wait on Gen. Anderson. Indefinite leave of absence was grant ed to Senators Rhea, Cissell, Jenkins, and W. T. Authory, in consequence of the disturbed state year for lifting collections reported. Accepted, of their respective localities. There seems to be something like a Nemesis which brings to the very homes and hearts of these gentlemen the first effects of the terrible results which they have been so instrumental in promoting. Desha, Ewing, Silvertooth, and others have left without the formal permission of the House. Hon. Laban T. Moore is here on a visit. FROM VIRGINIA-Wanton Destruction of Property.—A gentlesian from Berkly county, Va., arrived at Washing ton on Thursday. He reports that the destruction of property on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad exceeded anything heretofore reported. The intention of the rebels evidently is to make the road valueless as a means of transportation for the Government in case they should be a summer of the country of the Surveyor himself!

Having disposed thus summarily of this reckless statement touching the first boat and the permit for it, I submit for your inspection and proceed to present copies of the permit's instructions, &c., under which the second boat went to Green river, as impressions were taken from them on the letter book at our salt agency:

LOUISVILLE Sept. 21, 1861.

I notice in your paper of this morning an article copied from the Evansville (Ind) Journal not only contradicting the correction you kindly made for me of that paper's misstatements concerning the destination of the 1 000 barrels of my salt se 2 d in Green River September 10th, but attempting to justify its previous misstatements by a singular tissue of falsehoods purporting to come from the Collector's office in Evansville touching the previous load of salt shipped below by me under permit of August 22d.

As a minister of the Gospel compelled by duty to attend to secular business, I have felt an aversion to parading my name in connection with secular affairs of any sort before the public. Hence, under your correction of the former mis-Hence, under your correction of the former mis-statement as sufficient protection to my charac-ter, I was content quietly to submit to a loss of one or two thousand dollars by this urjust di-version of my property from its lawful destination. But as this journalist now renews the assault upon my character, and I happen to have the means at hand to expose the recklessness and malignity of his statements, I must ask the favor of a place in your paper for the documentary proof, premis-ing that this is all I know of the matter personally, since the business on the river below is managed by Captain Ross, whom I have always found to be a man of honor and honesty. I have never been at Evansville except to pass though never been at Evansville except to pass though it once in March last.

First then touching the boat load of salt sent below under the permit of August 22d. The Evansville Journal says:

"We learn at the Surveyor's office that on a previous occasion Mr. Robinson visited our city with a salt boat, and succeeded in obtaining a permit from the same sent the same sent to the same se from the Surveyor to retail it out along the river in quantities not to exceed five barrels to any one person or firm. In no case was he to sell any salt at Smithland or Paducah. Having obtained this permit, the gentleman started down the river, and in direct violation of his agreement, sold most of the salt to Mills & Co., of Smithland, whence, of course, it was shipped direct to the rebel camps."

Now, to show how much the public may credit the author of such a statement, happening to have the original permit (herewith sent for your inspection) I subjoin the copy in full, Mr. Cot-ton's letter of permit, and Surveyor Robinson's endorsement at Evansville: "U. S. CUSTOM-HOUSE OFFICE.

A. L. Robinson, Survegor, Evansville, Ind.: "Sir: I have this day granted a permit to Rev. 3. Robinson to ship to his different agents on the thio River one flatboat load of salt, which (permit) I trust will be recognized, as I feel assured he will have it properly distributed in this State, and (it) is not intended for points in seceded States. He will distribute it also in small sales to consumers.

Yours, respectfully,

"C. B. COTTON, Surveyor."

Arriving at Evansville, this indorsement is made on the above letter: "Surveyor's Office, Evansville, Ind., Aug. 22, 1861. "The above load salt-825 barrels of salt-A. L. ROBINSON, Surveyor."

Now let any one compare the account in the Louisville Journal of this permit with the permit itself, and thus judge of this miserable assault on my character. I need only add that Capt. Ross reported the sale and distribution to various parties on the Ohio river, at the regular Ohio river at the regular Ohio river was a compared to the regular ohio river when the form of the regular ohio river was a compared to the regular ohio river when the regular ohio river was a compared to the regular ohio river when the regular ohio river was a compared to the regular ohio the soft the Onto river, at the regular Onto river prices—some of it at or near the mouth of Cumberland, under direction of Mills & Co., who have been the regular agents at that point for many years, and of whose intention or disposition to ship to rebel camps I neither knew nor even suspected anything. The permit has not a syllable of the restrictions declared to have been made. And this was the only boat-load sent by me below, under the permit system, previous to that sent to Green River. Yet this journalist professes to speak from information obtained at the Surveyor's office thus directly in the teeth of the official permit of the Surveyor himself!

Green river, as impressions were taken from them on the letter book at our salt agency:

The Evansville Journal says: "No telegraphic dispatch has been received here by the Surveyor from the Louisville Collector in regard to the matter. We doubt if one was ever s nt."

Now, by Mr. Cotton's permission, I furnish all the documents connected with the second boat. This is the permit:

FROM CHINA. - At present throughout the whole empire, and among all these 400,000,000, there does not appear even one man, or any one body of men, either imperialist or insurgent, on whom any dependence can be placed. The young Emperor, far away from his capital, and the insurgent chief, given up to his new revelations, together with all their counsellors, seem alike incompetent to maintain order or to revent and together with all their counsellors, seem alike incompetent to maintain order or to prevent anarchy and misrule. Large armies are in the field distresses and perplexities of the people, under these circumstances, are dreadful beyond all description. Property and life are alike exposed to

This is the time for swords!

Some of our citizens, we find, are under the impression that the appointment of a Provost Marshal involves the declaration of martial law. Such however is not the fact. Martial law will not be declared here unless circum stances shall arise rendering it necessary, and we trust that nothing will render it necessary. The present laws, if executed, are sufficient for Council and all others will be expected to cooperate cheerfully with the Executive authori ties in their execution. Let no occasion be given for martial law if it can be avoided.

Let citizens of disloyal proclivities abstain from molesting the State, and the State through none of its agents will molest them. If they are unwilling to enjoy freedom from molestation on this condition, they might as well make up their minds at once to be molested, and banish all thought of peace; for, in such event, they will stand forth as active enemies of the State. Whoever accepts the gencrous pleage of the State, and abides faithfully by the terms of the pledge, will be free from molestation; but he who spurns the pledge, and gives "aid and comfort" to the invader, will deserve and receive the molestation due to a felon and a traitor. Let no halting recreant doubt this. Kentucky has shown that she knows how to be magnanimous and merciful to the misguided; she is ready to show that she knows how to be just to the guilty; and woe to him who provokes the exhibition.

Gen. Buckner says in his proclamation that he does not come among us "to molest any citizen, whatever may be his political opinions." We wonder whether he supposes that he molests no citizen when he destroys the locks and dams of Green river, seizes railroad cars and locomotives, burns bridges, and breaks up all railroad and all telegraphic intercourse. If such things do not molest our citizens, what does Gen. Buckner suppose

COL. JACKSON'S REGIMENT.-We understand a notion has somehow got affoat that as well as several well-known amateurs. Every Col. Jackson's regiment as soon as completed will be ordered to Washington. This is a singular mistake. Col. Jackson's regiment, like every other body of men in the service of the Government, will be subject to the orders of the Government; but no sane man who reflects a moment can suppose the Government will order Kentucky troops out of Kentucky whilst the enemy is entrenched in the heart of the State or maintains a foothold in our borders. The Government has enough for the Kentucky troops of all arms to do at home, and will probably prisoners. When the steamer Commercial passed have for some time to come. Such at any rate is the confident expectation of Col. Jack-

As respects service beyond the limits of Kentucky, Col. Jackson's regiment, therefore, stands on precisely the same footing with every other body of Kentuckians in the service. One is just as liable as another to be ordered to exterior points; but, in point of fact, none will be so ordered as long at least as the foot of the invader is upon our soil.

ANOTHER REBEL THEFT .- On Saturday night st a party of secessionists tion of the muskets belonging to the Home Guard at Brandenburg. Each member of the Guard kept his own gun, and this fact being known to the revolutionists, a party of them, supposed to be some twenty or thirty in number, went to the houses of the different members of the Guard, late law partner of Breckinridge, and all the and demanded the guns. They succeeded in getting only about seventeen, when the alarm was given. The remaining members of the company assembled and succeeded in preventing the capture of any more of the guns. The "seceders" betook themselves from town as soon as they discovered that the alarm was given and the company were out and made their way with the guns, it is supposed, to Elizabethtown. It is thought that Gen. Buckner's camp furnished some fifteen men to assist in this outrage, thus protecting the soil and citizens of Kentucky from an "insolent foe!" It is known that some of the men were from his camp and were assisted by others who live in Meade county.

The facts that have come to our knowledge corclusively show that this foray, exactly similar to several others that we have heard of, was but part and parcel of a regular system of forcible depredation meant to extend throughout the State wherever arms are to be found in the possession of loval men. There are some thousands of grace to them-scarcely better than cowardice.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—We are gratified to see paper, has appeared in an entirely new dress, and the able editor has been appointed agent of pieces, but will survive.

IMPORTANT TO VOLUNTEERS - ALLOTMENT TICKETS .- The War Department has made the ecessary orders to carry out the act of Congress relative to allotments of pay. Hereafter the recruit, upon enrolling his name, has only to designate what proportion of his monthly stipend shall be given to his family to have the necessary nute made, and the sum paid regularly. The step is an important one. Large numbers of very sirable men have turned away from the recrui ing station, because the officer could give ther no assurance as to provision for their families while they are absent on duty. Such assurance can now be had. It will be no difficult business for the families of needy volunteers to obtain advances from friends and the charitable on the strength of the allotment ticket, so that the neans of support may be made available from the very day the recruit has entered the ranks. If ne organization, with small capital, could be framed for the purpose of saving the holders of such tickets from extortion and oppressive discounts, a still heavier weight of anxiety would be taken from the mind of the volunteer, and another inducement offered to enlistment. 1. Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That Kentucky has always locked upon the Union of the States, and the preservation of liberty, as one and inseporable, ow and forever.

2. Resolved, that we assumed neutrality and

2. Resolved, that we assumed helitatry and mediation not to destroy, but to preserve the unity of States; not to cast off our allegiance to the Federal Government, but to try and win back peaceably, by proper mediation and compronise, the seceded States to their allegiance.

3. Resolved, That when we assumed neutrality we intended it merely as an abeyance of our constitutional duty by the sufferance, not independence, of the General Government, nor for the self ish purpose alone of preserving our peace, but for the far nobler and holier purpose of refraining from the combat so that we could appeal both to the North and South to stay the fratricidal and unnatural combat, and to offer our services as me-diator to adjust the difficulties that unhappily had arisen and restore the work of our fathers. Resolved, therefore, That when the General Government occupies our soil for its defence, in pursuance of a constitutional right, it neither compromises our assumed neutrality, or gives the right to the Confederate forces to invade our State on the assumption that our neutrality has been violated, especially when they first set foot upon our soil upon the plea of military necessity.

5. Resolved, fur.her, That the honor of Kentucky will not permit her to make any concessions ses to the Confederate forces as long as not been assumed from fear, but from love to all parts of the Union, and if she is forced into this combat, that with a brave heart, and clear conscience she will appeal fearlessly to the God of battles; and if that dread hour must come, Kentucky expects every son to do his duty; she appeals to them by all the cherished memories of the past—by the memory of Raisen, of New Orleans, of Buena Viste; by all the rich hopes of the tuture she demands that they stand by her until the last armed invader is driven from her soil. Who will be a phase as to desert her? Who soil. Who will be so base as to desert her? Who will stand before history as both traitor and coward to the State whose great heart throbs with undying love to the sisterhood of States, knowing love no sectional limits but in her love, embracing a boundless continent? If there be such a one, may his name be handed down with infamy to Woodon and Willow Ware, Brooms, Cordage.
